Description

Elegant and Ageless: Calvin Klein Square Sun Glasses

Enter design with the Calvin Klein Square Sun Glasses. These sunglasses are the ideal mix of style and function, using a strong, modern appearance with a streamlined, injected plastic frame. Developed with accuracy and elegance, these sunglasses offer all-day convenience while securing your eyes from damaging UV rays. With their green lenses, they include a trendy pop to any clothing and make a declaration any place you go.

Secret Includes:

- Frame Product: Resilient injected plastic for a light-weight and tough feel
- Lens Style: Square lenses for a modern, fashion-forward look
- Lens Color: Green lenses with optimal protection against the sun
- Lens Width: 56 mm, offering a spacious, comfortable fit
- Bridge Width: 18 mm, providing a secure fit on most face shapes
- Temple Length: 145 mm, ideal for a snug yet comfortable fit
- UV Protection: Full protection from harmful UVA and UVB rays

Why You'll Love Them:

These Calvin Klein Square Sunglasses aren't just a pretty accessory—they're built to perform. The green lenses not only offer a sleek, trendy look but also provide clear vision with an added layer of protection. Whether you're strolling through the city streets, lounging at the beach, or attending a summer event, these sunglasses are your go-to accessory for every occasion. Their square shape provides a strong, confident look, while the contrast details give them an extra edge that will make heads turn.

The injected plastic frame ensures light-weight comfort, so you won't have to worry about any discomfort during extended wear. The 145 mm temples are designed to fit comfortably around your ears without pressure, and the 18 mm bridge width guarantees that these sunglasses stay securely in place.
