

Luxury Diving Watch with Sapphire Crystal & Stainless Steel Band

Description

Exquisite Craftsmanship Meets Functional Elegance

Introducing the epitome of luxury combined with functionality – a diving watch that transcends the ordinary. Meticulously crafted for the modern man who appreciates both style and substance, this watch is not just an accessory; it's a statement.

Features That Define Excellence

At the heart of this timepiece is the reliable Seiko NH35A movement, ensuring precise timekeeping with a mechanical hand wind and automatic self-wind capability. Encased in sturdy stainless steel, the watch features a resilient sapphire crystal dial window, known for its scratch resistance and clarity. The luminous hands glow in the dark for easy reading, while the 100M water resistance makes it a perfect companion for both casual swimming and serious diving.
