Elevate your home or commercial space with these sleek and modern counter height bar stools. This set of two stools offers the perfect combination of comfort and style, making them an ideal addition to your kitchen, dining room, bar, cafe, or any space where you need stylish seating with support. With their modern design and durable construction, these stools are not just functional, but also add a touch of sophistication to any décor.

The stools feature a black powder-coated metal frame, providing sturdy support with a weight capacity of up to 330 lbs. Their ergonomic backrest and sponge-cushioned seat ensure hours of comfort, even during long social gatherings or meals. Whether you're enjoying your morning coffee or hosting friends for dinner, these bar stools will keep you comfortable and relaxed.

Easy to Clean Waterproof PU Leather

Upholstered in high-quality crazy-horse faux PU leather, these bar stools offer a rustic farmhouse charm that suits a variety of interior styles. The waterproof leather is not only stylish but also practical. A quick wipe with a damp cloth is all it takes to keep your stools looking fresh and new, making them ideal for busy spaces.

Key Features:

- Durable Metal Frame: Powder-coated tubular metal for enhanced strength and stability.
- Comfy Cushioned Seat: Ergonomic backrest and soft sponge seat for all-day comfort.
- Waterproof PU Leather: Easy to clean and maintain with a sleek, rustic finish.
- Anti-Slip Protectors: Protect your floors from scratches and prevent stools from tipping over.
- Modern Design: Perfect for contemporary kitchens, bars, lounges, and cafes.
- Easy Assembly: Quick and hassle-free setup with included instructions and tools.

Why Choose These Bar Stools?

These bar stools offer the best of both worlds – style and practicality. The ergonomic design provides exceptional comfort for long periods of sitting, while the durable construction ensures that they will stand the test of time. Whether you're setting up your kitchen island or outfitting a commercial space, these stools are designed to fit seamlessly into any environment.

Thanks to their versatile style and premium materials, these stools are the perfect choice for any modern space. Their rustic leather finish pairs beautifully with both contemporary and traditional décor, while the anti-slip protectors provide peace of mind. Plus, their easy maintenance makes them a convenient and practical seating solution for any busy household or business.
