Description

Discover the Great Outdoors with Confidence

Embark on your next adventure with our Ultra-Light Telescopic Trekking Poles. Designed for the enthusiast and the amateur alike, these poles combine durability, lightweight construction, and a foldable design to enhance your hiking experience. Whether scaling steep slopes or traversing rugged terrain, these trekking poles are your reliable companion, ensuring stability and support every step of the way.

Key Features

Our trekking poles are crafted from premium 7075 aluminum, known for its strength and lightness, making them perfect for any hiking expedition. The innovative three-section foldable design allows them to compact down to just 35cm, fitting easily into your backpack. Equipped with a quick-lock mechanism, they can be adjusted swiftly to any height between 35-135cm, ensuring a custom fit that's just right for you.

Product Benefits

- Quick and easy adjustment with a secure locking mechanism.
- Comfortable cork grip that conforms to the shape of your hand, paired with a moisture-wicking handle to keep your grip dry.
- Lightweight design, each pole weighing only 300g, minimizing fatigue on long treks.
- Durable carbon tungsten steel tips provide a firm grip on various terrains.
- Foldable and portable, easy to store and transport.

Why Choose Our Trekking Poles?

Perfect for hiking, walking, and trekking, our poles offer enhanced balance and stability on uneven ground or while crossing streams. The easy-to-use quick lock system ensures your poles stay at the right height, providing support exactly where you need it. The ergonomic cork handle not only offers comfort but also adapts to the shape of your hand, making it ideal for long-duration use.
